Inyzia is a duo of Belgian DJs and producers composed of Lorenzo Favero and David Stultiens.

Formed in 2022, Inyzia initially emerged from the collaboration between David Stultiens and Pascal Simon. In 2023, Lorenzo Favero joined the adventure, bringing a new emotional depth to the project. Since 2025, Inyzia continues as a duo, with Lorenzo and David crafting a distinctive sonic identity built on synergy and artistic exploration.

Inyzia's sound blends the drive of melodic techno with warmer, organic textures inspired by melodic house, tribal rhythms and subtle progressive elements. Always evolving, the duo seeks to create immersive and emotional journeys designed for the dancefloor and beyond.
